Additional Information

Scope/range in relation to perfromance criteria The details in this field are explanatory statements of scope and/or examples of possible contexts in which the NOS may apply; they are not to be regarded as range statements required for achievement of the NOS.

Note: Where a child or young person finds it difficult or impossible to express their own preferences and make decisions about their life, achievement of this standard may require the involvement of advocates or others who are able to represent the views and best interests of the child or young person.

Where there are language differences within the work setting, achievement of this standard may require the involvement of interpreters or translation services.

Active participation is a way of working that regards individuals as active partners in their own care or support rather than passive recipients. Active participation recognises each individual's right to participate in the activities and relationships of everyday life as independently as possible Child or young person includes those from birth to18 years of age who require health and care services and those who are still eligible through legislation or policy to receive children's and young people's services until they reach 21 (or in some cases 25, if still in educational provision) To communicate may include using the child or young person's preferred spoken language, the use of signs, the use of symbols or pictures, writing, objects of reference, communication passports, other non verbal forms of communication, human and technological aids to communication Interventions may include a range of specified responses, actions and strategies. Where these include any form of physical intervention, this must be used in strict accordance with legal and work setting requirements, only when unavoidable, as a last resort, solely in order to maintain safety and never as a punishment

Key people are those who are important to an individual and who can make a difference to his or her well-being. Key people may include family, friends, carers and others with whom the individual has a supportive relationship Level of development includes the cognitive, physical, social, emotional and intellectual level of the child or young person

Others are your colleagues and other professionals whose work contributes to the individual's well-being and who enable you to carry out your role Unwanted behaviour may include verbal abuse (racist comments, threats, bullying others); physical abuse (such as assault of others, damaging property); behaviour which is destructive to the child or young person; and behaviour which is illegal
