

SFJCCBF1.1

Develop productive working relationships with colleagues

Overview

This unit is about developing working relationships with colleagues, within your own organisation and within other organisations that are productive in terms of supporting and delivering your work and that of the overall organisation.

`Colleagues' are any people you are expected to work with, whether they are at a similar position or in other positions, including your manager.

The unit is recommended for team leaders and first line managers.

Performance criteria

You must be able to:

- P1 establish working relationships with all colleagues who are relevant to the work being carried out
- P2 recognise, agree and respect the roles and responsibilities of colleagues and, particularly in situations of matrix management, their managers' requirements
- P3 understand and take account of the priorities, expectations and authority of colleagues in decisions and actions
- P4 create an environment of trust and mutual respect where you have no authority, or shared authority, over those you are working with
- P5 understand difficult situations and issues from your colleague's perspective and provide support, where necessary, to move things forward
- P6 fulfil agreements made with colleagues and let them know.
- P7 advise colleagues promptly of any difficulties or where it will be impossible to fulfil agreements
- P8 identify and sort out conflicts of interest and disagreements with colleagues in ways that minimise damage to work being carried out.
- P9 exchange information and resources with colleagues to make sure that all parties can work effectively
- P10 provide feedback to colleagues on their performance and seek feedback from colleagues on your own performance in order to identify areas for improvement
