Overview

This unit is about leading meetings in order to achieve their objectives, which may be to solve problems, take decisions, consult with people or to exchange information and knowledge.

The unit is recommended for managers at all levels operating within Expeditions.

Performance criteria

You must be able to:

- P1 establish the purpose and objectives of the meeting and confirm that a meeting is the best way to achieve these objectives
- P2 prepare carefully how you will lead the meeting and identify who needs to participate
- P3 invite participants, giving them sufficient notice to enable them to attend and stating:
  - P3.1 the importance of the meeting
  - P3.2 the role they will be expected to play
  - P3.3 the preparation they need to do
- P4 circulate relevant information in advance and, if required, brief participants individually on the content and purpose of the meeting and their roles
- P5 set a fixed time for the meeting to begin and end and allocate time appropriately for each agenda item
- P6 state the purpose of the meeting at the start and check that all participants understand why they are present
- P7 clarify specific objectives at the beginning of each agenda item
- P8 encourage all participants to make clear, concise and constructive contributions from their perspectives, whilst acknowledging and building on the contributions of other participants
- P9 discourage unhelpful comments and digressions, refocusing attention on the objectives of the meeting
- P10 manage time flexibly, giving more time to particular agenda items, if necessary, whilst ensuring key objectives are met and participants are kept informed of changes in the agenda
- P11 summarise the discussion at appropriate times and allocate action points to participants at the end of each agenda item
- P12 take decisions within the meeting's authority, remit or terms of reference.
- P13 observe any formal procedures or standing orders that apply to the meeting
- P14 check that decisions and action points are accurately recorded and promptly communicated to those who need to know
- P15 evaluate whether the purpose and objectives of the meeting have been achieved and how future meetings could be made more effective
